THE PASSING OF REVEREND JERRY FALWELL

A statement from
Archbishop Scott McLaughlin
Presiding Bishop of The Orthodox Anglican Church Metropolitan and Primate of The Orthodox Anglican Communion

Reverend Jerry Falwell has been an outspoken defender of traditional Christian values for many years. In a society that is increasingly humanistic, he consistently urged our nation's people to uphold Biblical teachings on life, marriage, and family issues.

We are saddened by his sudden passing, but have great respect for his hard work and the principles to which he so faithfully stood.
